

Here are some pics from last Sunday. A group of us representing the Native American community went to the home of the late Bishop O'Connell and sang healing songs for his safe journey across the sky.

